DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 10-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 10 is indefinite because the phrase, “normally of larger dimensions than the roof”, can not be determined if it is a limitation or simply stating a common construction as an example.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 10, 11, 13-15, and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by EP0300889.

The European patent publication discloses a roof panel (1) with an interior trim (2). The roof panel (1) has front and rear dished recesses shown in Figures 2 and 3. These recesses are capable of engagement with the underside of cross members. The figures also show step portions around the perimeter of the roof panel, Figures 2-6. The step portions match up with shoulders of the members (C). Adhesive is used to connect the roof panel (1) to the to the members (C). The members (C) are shown closed on top. The trim (2) is larger than the roof panel (1). Releasable fasteners are used to attach accessories to holes in the interior trim and members (C), as shown in Figure 4. Elements (17) are capable of transmitting stress from the trim (2) to the roof panel (1).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 12, 16, 17, and 19 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
